Official Announcement

November 26, 2007

Official Release of 151 Contractual Rights Acquired at the Triskelion Auction

On November 15, 2007, Siren Publishing acquired the Triskelion intellectual property offered for bid at a public bankruptcy auction.

On November 21, 2007, the Triskelion assets were transferred by Order of the Court to Siren Publishing free and clear of liens, encumbrances and interests. Included as part of the purchased assets are 151 contractual rights.

As the owner of those contracts, Siren Publishing has unconditionally released, in their entirety, the 151 contractual rights back to the respective authors, as specifically listed in the table below. This umbrella letter is the only official notice that will be provided regarding the release of these contracts.

Siren Publishing wishes the former Triskelion authors the best in finding new homes for their books.
